

THE BLESSINGS CONTINUE!!!

On Monday, March 4th, we started our second Spanish Bible Study at Pleasant Valley State Prison in Coalinga!

I've scheduled another CBTW training day for March 9th for at least three volunteers. Two are interested in going with different programs to the Fresno County Jail, but one will be targeted for PVSP in Coalinga, and possibly Corcoran SATF in the future. We are also trying to get Guy Williams cleared for PVSP. I will be training him at the same time I'm training Addison Jones, if Guy gets cleared.

This makes fifteen of us that will be going to either PVSP, Corcoran SATF, Fresno County Jail, Madera County Jail, FCI Mendota Federal Prison and the Stanislaus Military Academy for troubled youth.

God is AWESOME!!

HELP!!! Due to our heavy printing obligations (90 monthly newsletters, student scripture sheets for fourteen classes, volunteer manuals and printer maintenance), we find ourselves praying for an increase in donations of $850.00 for 2013. Its awesome how God grows this ministry, but along with it comes the financial responsibilities!

FEBRUARY ACTIVITY

Another great month for The Kingdom! Thirteen volunteers held 65 classes of 74 scheduled (88%) with 841 inmate students attending. I also preached twice with 87 worshippers in attendance at FCI Mendota Federal Prison.

PRAYER CONCERNS

1. Donations of $850.00 to cover printing costs.
2. Continue prayer for Addison Jones, as he is facilitating four classes a week, between the Fresno County Jail and PVSP.
3. Oscar Paz: He has been cleared! Prayer for the new Spanish class we are starting at PVSP.

VOLUME 12 ISSUE 03

QUIPS FROM INSIDE

Greetings,

We were standing around outside the chapel after the Sunday service, and we were discussing sin. It is fair to say, this is a topic that is touchy to all Christians! However, the surprise was a new Brother, who attends your Tuesday night Bible Study, began to tell us his view of sin.

We were surprised as he gave a clear understanding and two great examples of sin and how we are able to make it through the temptation. We stayed very quiet as he spoke. Continuing to make his points, he referred to the Tuesday night study, quoting statements made by you, the other brothers, and the various Bible verses we studied.

It was a joy and blessing to hear and to see how your time and willingness to share the Gospel with those of us in prison is effective. On many occasions I have told you how you have blessed and helped me personally...and its now great to see how you are blessing more and more brothers. You are, and always will be, a blessing. I dearly thank you for being a great Brother, a good friend, and above all, the right man for the job you do with us!

Stay blessed! Zac, D Yard Corcoran SATF
